Notice of New Arrest/Request to Amend
Special Conditions

Dear Judge Bissell:

On November 17, 1998, the above-named offender was sentenced by Your Honor on a charge of Importation of Cocaine. He was sentenced to seventy four months custody and placed on supervised release for four years. Special conditions ordered were mental health and drug treatment.

The offender's term of supervised release began on February 2, 2005, in the Eastern District of New York, due to Mr. Malachi residing in Staten Island, New York.

This letter is being issued to notify the Court that Mr. Malachi was arrested on January 6, 2007, by the New York City Police Department and charged with Assault with Intent to Cause Physical Injury and Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the fourth degree, both class A misdemeanors. This altercation stems from a domestic violence incident involving Malachi's wife, Tameka Scott. The offender was released from custody on his own recognizance, January 12, 2007. A hearing is scheduled for February 22, 2007, in a Richmond County Criminal Court.

Prior to his arrest, the offender was also having problems securing, plus maintaining employment and a stable residence. In fact Malachi has resided at various homeless shelters throughout the New York City. As a result of his unstable residence, the offender has been extremely difficult to supervise.

Based on these circumstances, our office is now requesting the Court review and sign the attached Form 12B, modifying the special conditions to include placement in a Residential Re-Entry Center for six months and pay the subsistence cost. This intervention will assist the supervising Probation Office with an opportunity to assess the Malachi's needs, while providing the offender with a place to live and assistance in obtaining employment. Mr. Malachi is in agreement with this recommendation, and has signed the enclosed Form 49 Waiver of a hearing.

If Your Honor requires more information or has any questions, please contact the undersigned officer at 973-645-6241.

Yours truly,

Christopher Maloney, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
